Memorial Wreath for Barnard H. Bee. The following letter to Miss Bonham will be of interest to the A. D. C. chapter who, in response to Col. J. C. Stribling's suggestion arranged for the wreath to be placed on the monument of Stonewall Jackson in memory of Barnard H. Bee:
2304 W. Grace St.,
Richmond, Va., June 5, 1915.

My dear Miss Bonham:
I have the pleasure to report to you as the sponsor of the South Carolina division U. D. C. that the Palmetto wreath which you brought to Richmond and gave to me as the president of the Stonewall Jackson corporation, was received with most grateful appreciation. It was placed on the corner stone in remembrance of Gen. B. H. Bee, who at Manassas gave the unfading name to Stonewall Jackson.

On Friday morning, June 4th, I conveyed the wreath to Mrs. Gen. Wm. R. Cox, the vice regent, and with her placed it in a large glass case in the South Carolina room of the Confederate museum.
Allow me to assure you and the ladies of the U. D. C. whom you represent that this most thoughtful and gracious act, again associating the name of the distinguished South Carolina soldier with the name of Stonewall Jackson has been highly appreciated by our monument association. I need hardly say to you, dear Miss Bonham, that we deeply regret the derangement of your plans at the laying of the corner stone and especially any inconvenience or discomfort that came to you.
Will you be kind enough to present my regards to the young ladies who were your maids of honor. It was a disappointment to me that I had so little opportunity to see you and your party, and no opportunity at all to show you the hospitality of our city. I am with sincere and grateful regards,
Your obedient servant and your friend,
James Power Smith,
President Stonewall Jackson Monument Corporation.

A Pretty Shower. A pretty shower yesterday for Miss Eva Tribble was given by Mrs. V. B. Wilson and Mrs. W. E. Raynor at the home of Mrs. Wilson on Morris street. The color scheme of yellow and white was beautifully carried in a profusion of daisies used everywhere.
About thirty guests were present and as it was a miscellaneous shower each one brought a pretty and useful article for the bride. During the afternoon delightful nectar was served by Miss Olla Tribble, from a bowl embanked in daisies.
While the guests were chatting in the parlor, Master Harold Wilson entered dressed as an expressman, pulling a sack, full of packages. After making Mr. Tribble sign for her packages, I turned them over to her and some time was spent admiring her gifts. After which a dainty sweet course was served.

spending some time in Anderson in the interest of defective and deformed children. Mrs. Latham goes from town to town searching out afflicted children, arranging with local doctors for free clinic in needy cases and treatment when necessary. In cases which demand an operation she undertakes to raise the funds.
Her work is a wonderful one, as she even finds and provides homes for afflicted orphans. The state orphanages are not allowed to take afflicted or deformed children, and it is in the interest and care for these helpless children that Mrs. Latham is working. It is a splendid work and Mrs. Latham will doubtless receive the hearty support and cooperation of the people of Anderson. Any one wishing to communicate with her can do so at Phone 86.

Chief Jackson Would Not Accept His Share of $112.75—Committee Decided Question.

As will be remembered $112.75 was raised by a committee composed of C. F. Spearman, Ollie Burriss and Porter A. Whaley, to give to firemen who worked in the Blue Ridge railway fire sometime ago. This money was given by citizens of Anderson who wanted to show their appreciation.
Sometime ago this money was turned over to Chief Jackson with the instructions that he and the men spend the money in whatever way they saw fit.
However the firemen could not, or would not decide what to do with it and asked that the committee meet with the chief and decide the matter for him.
The meeting was held last night and after some discussion it was decided to apply the money toward the new uniforms for the men. Chief Jackson refused to accept any of the money stating that he wanted it all to go to the others. He stated that it was his place to fight fire and that it was the other men that did the work that night.
Accordingly, $8.05 will be paid toward the new uniform of every private on the force.

Did Not Be Lazy. By way of enlarging the children's vocabulary our village school teacher is in the habit of giving them a certain word and asking them to form a sentence in which that word occurs. "Well, what is your sentence, Tommy?" asked the teacher.
"Father wore his trousers out, but notwithstanding."
